THE DECATUR CHURCH.

Rev. Geo. B. Vosburg, the New Pastor of the Baptist Church—Dr. Short at the Methodist Church.

THE NEW PASTOR.

Rev. Geo. B. Vosburg delivered two fine discourses at the Baptist church, yesterday. The morning theme was the words of St. Paul to the Thessalonians, "Brethren, pray for us." Along the roadway the rarest flowers are growing, but are passed by unnoticed by us. In the same way the beautiful thoughts of the Bible are heard so often that they are also passed by, unnoticed and unheeded.

St. Paul, who was so grand, so noble and so strong, often used the words of the text. "I want your prayers and your help, that I may open the Word of God so that it may be just what your hearts need."

Pray for me to grow in the grace and knowledge of God. Pray for me that I may be Christlike. Pray that my heart may be filled; that it may give out those things which you need. Pray that a mighty fire may be kindled, and the kingdom of God built up among you. Pray that you and I, united in purpose, may press forward toward the heavenly kingdom." The evening theme was "The Christian's Life." Large congregations at both services.

Rev. Geo. B. Vosburg is a graduate of the New York state Normal School, and of Madison University and Hamilton Theological Seminary. He has been in the ministry of the gospel almost nine years, being located successively at Cooperstown, N. Y., Jersey City, N. J., and at Chicago, Ill. From the last named city he was called to the pastorate of the Baptist church of Decatur, and took full charge on Sunday. He is a dignified gentleman, about 35 years of age, and has a wife and child.

DAVID F. SHORT.

The Rev. Dr. W. F. Short, President of the Illinois Female College, at Jacksonville, occupied the pulpit at the First M. E. Church, on Sunday morning and evening, in the absence of Rev. Dimmitt, who spent the day at Danville, conducting the exercises attending the dedication of the new Kimball Chapel, at that place. The services opened with a song by the choir of twelve voices, led by Milton Johnson, and prayer by the clergyman. Before the collection was taken, Prof. C. V. Demorest gave a solo, which was splendidly rendered. Dr. Short announced that the services in memory of the late Gen. Jesse H. Moore had been postponed until another time, owing to the absence of Ex-Gov. Oglesby, who had telegraphed that he could not come at the time arranged. The Doctor read for a scriptural lesson the 21 Psalm and selections from the first chapter of Colossians, and took for his text part of the 12th verse of the 19th chapter of Revelations—"And on his head were many crowns." The sermon was delivered extemporaneously in a deliberate manner. The points considered were the creative power, beneficence, knowledge, dominion and grace of Christ, closing with a peroration that applied to all in the vast congregation. Another large audience assembled at night to hear Dr. Short speak on the life of St. Paul and the power of the Christian religion.

Rev. W. H. Prestley occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church at 10:30 a. m., but there were no services at night, as the pastor was suffering from a mild malarial attack.

In connection with his sermons at Stapp's Chapel on Sunday, Rev. Musgrave gave an interesting account of the camp meeting revival at Clear Lake, Iowa, which was conducted mainly by Rev. Thomas Harrison.

Seven Sisters Killed by Lightning.

Mr. David Perry, who is in possession of the Orlando Powers farm, four and a half miles northwest of Decatur, came into the city to-day, and reported a serious loss he sustained on Friday evening last, while the cyclonic storm was raging with terrific fury. Mr. Perry had thirty-four head of the steers in a pasture, enclosed with a wire fence, which at the point where the fatality occurred, had a rail on top. Saturday Mr. Perry found that seven of the steers which evidently had been standing near the fence in a bunch, had been killed outright by lightning. The supposition is that the lightning struck the wire, and running along the fence to the rail, passed upward and off among the cattle. The loss is a heavy one, but Mr. Perry is thankful that only seven of his steers were killed.

Fancy Shots.

Capt. Stubbs, who is to give a prize shooting match at the fair grounds, gave a brief exhibition of his skill this morning in the presence of a few persons, and it was of such a character as to stamp him the champion shot. His fancy shots—all with a rifle—are the finest ever seen in this locality, or anywhere else.

Seriously Injured.

This morning at about 8:30 o'clock a runaway, which was attended by serious results, occurred on Calhoun's track, in the 5th ward. Charles Denton, son of J. T. Denton, the groom, had hitched a new horse to the delivery wagon, at the home place, corner of Calhoun and East North streets, and had got into the wagon and had taken hold of the lines, when the horse took flight from some unknown cause and ran northward a block and a half on Calhoun street. The wagon was turned over, and Charles's feet caught in the traces. He was held under the wagon and dragged the whole distance, while the horse kicked wickedly, striking the young man's leg. The horse was stopped by two men, and Charles released from his painful position. He fainted when moved from under the wagon. One of the bones of an ankle was broken, and one leg badly bruised. He was taken home and attended by a surgeon. His injuries will not prove fatal. The wagon was slightly damaged.

Letters from Galois.

Sunday morning Mrs. George R. Steele received a letter from her father, the late Gen. Jesse H. Moore, which was written at Galois, Penn. on June 23d, and Mrs. H. C. Johns also received a letter from her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Moore, of the same date. Gen. Moore wrote to his daughter stating that all were then in good health, and Mrs. Moore wrote to her mother to the same effect. But both referred to the fact that the place was infected with yellow fever, but that it was then abating. Letters written since the death of the General, which occurred on July 11th, are expected to arrive during the first week in August. The office of United States Consul is being filled by Harry Moore, the vice-consul, who may be appointed to succeed his father.

A Sunday Runaway.

Frank D. Caldwell, the coal dealer, had a lively experience and a miraculous escape from death Sunday forenoon at about 10:30 o'clock. He had "Darby" out hitched to a road cart, and was driving about the streets. He had J. W. Baker in the rig for a companion, but Mr. Baker got out before the exciting incident occurred. Coming east on West Main st. "Darby" seemed to be stepping all right, but suddenly he gave a jump or two and started eastward on a gallop, his hoofs clattering over the streets and causing people to rush out from every direction to witness the runaway. Mr. Caldwell held on to the lines until Franklin street was reached, when he concluded that the safest thing for him to do would be to jump, and as the runaway horse turned quickly to go north on Franklin street he jumped from the cart, and striking the ground he was hurled head over heels, coming up all O. K., in dangerous proximity to a pile of stones. He was not hurt in the least, and getting up hurried after "Darby," and found that he had taken refuge in H. W. Davis's wagon yard, corner of Peairie and Jackson streets. A great crowd had collected at the yard, and much solicitude was felt for the safety of Mr. Caldwell. Going up Franklin street the runaway got on the pavement in front of the old Farmer and Brennenman buildings, and the cart did some damage to a basement stairway protection. One of the shafts of the cart was broken at the end, but no other damage was done. In falling to the ground Mr. Caldwell's pockets were emptied of a lot of silver coin, which a man and a boy were busy picking up after the outfit had passed.

SHOT ON THE FLY.

Officer Hartley Brings Down an Escaping Prisoner at the First Fire.

Something of a sensation was caused in the city Sunday forenoon by a little episode that occurred near Shalhbarger & Co's mill. The police have been on the lookout for a week for "Dutch" Holland, aged 20 years, formerly a bootblack in the city, who has been in many scrapes, and has caused the officers more or less trouble. A warrant was sworn out a few days ago for the arrest of young Holland on a charge of stealing a watch from Carlton King, and Marshal Mason, who has the paper, notified the police to arrest the accused on sight. Officer Hartley found Holland near the mill Sunday forenoon, in company with Frank McGurthey, and the officer put the young man under arrest. Holland resisted, and said he would not go without a warrant. Then the officer called on McGurthey, in the name of the city, to assist him. McGurthey refused, and then Holland jolted away from Hartley and attempted to escape. Hartley called to Holland to stop, or he would shoot, and pulled out his 32 calibre revolver, as he made the throat. Holland kept on running, with the officer after him, and again was he told to stop. Seeing that his prisoner was about to get away, Hartley fired, the ball striking Holland in the right forearm, and going through between the bones, making a flesh wound. Holland had run about one hundred and fifty yards from the point where he was arrested, and Hartley was about twenty-five steps distant when he fired. Holland dropped all in a heap when hit, and gave the officer no further trouble. He was taken to the county jail where his wound was dressed, and where he will remain to be treated according to law, not only on the charge of stealing, but for resisting an officer. We learn that a warrant is out for the arrest of Frank McGurthey, who will be fined for refusing to obey the orders of an officer. Officer Hartley is a veteran soldier of two wars, and knows how to handle a gun. Young Holland would have saved much bodily pain had he gone along quietly with the officer.

The Gen. Moore Memorial.

It is now the intention of those having the matter in charge to hold the Gen. J. H. Moore memorial services at Imboden's Springs on Sunday afternoon, July 22, on which occasion Ex-Gov. Oglesby, Rev. T. D. Weems, of Griggsville, and probably Dr. Prentice of Springfield, and Dr. Short of Jacksonville, will speak. It was the last request of the deceased that Rev. Weems, who was greatly admired by the General, should speak at his funeral. Further particulars of the arrangements which are not yet fully perfected, will appear in these columns this week.

A Large Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles C. Carter, which occurred from the family residence, on Jackson street, Sunday afternoon, was very largely attended by relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Musgrave, of Stapp's Chapel, and appropriate music was supplied by a choir led by Mr. Milton Johnson. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The remains were followed to Greenwood by a long funeral cortege, there being forty-four vehicles in the procession. The pall-bearers were Messrs. D. A. Maffit, D. H. Cloyd, J. A. Merriweather, Charles Martin, Edwin Carter and R. H. Piper.

The Weather.

Hill and son, Eddie W., Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Armstrong and two children, Will Wood, David F. Hamsher, and Miss Minnie Dill. The party took the Central route. They anticipate a pleasant time.

The members of the disbanded Pension Examining Board have been paid off in full by the government. A draft was received this morning from Washington for $600, which amount has been divided between Mrs. Wulston, Curtis and Burnstead. The new board will probably be composed of Mrs. Ira N. Barnes and Joseph Brown, of Decatur, and Dr. Wm. Sturgis, of Macon.

Concert at the Tabernacle.

The concert to-morrow night will no doubt be well attended. The exertions of Mr. Demorest in preparing the best entertainment of the kind ever given in this city have been recognized, and there is every indication that our people will show their proper appreciation of his efforts by giving him a full house. All who have not yet secured tickets can procure them at Curtis & Co's or at Hand's book store.

Not the Right Thing.

Victoria allows none of her children to see her without special permission, and it takes far more red tape for one of the children to get an audience with her as it does for a total stranger. We don't see how she can raise a family that way. What would a boy do if he had a stone-bruise on his heel and wanted to see his mother? Or suppose one of the Princes should eat green apples and get the colic; he wouldn't want to sit down on the doorstep with his department of the interior tied up in a double bow-knot waiting to get an audience with his mother to get some peppermint sling. There are times when a boy wants to see his mother quick, whether she is a Queen or a ninny, and to stand him off for any red tape is dangerous. Suppose one of her girls goes out to an ice cream saloon with a fellow, and he proposes to her, and is going right away on a train, and wants an answer right off. If the girl has to wait until her turn comes to see her mother, she is liable to lose her chance of getting married. A mother should be ready at all times to see her children.

We All Believe

That it is a long time that has no turning; that many a shaft of random sent, finds a mark the archer little means; that no remedy sold will cure coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and all throat and lung troubles so quickly nor permanently as Dr. Rigdon's Positive Cure; that our druggist, Dr. A. J. Stoner, 14 south new square, is very generous to give trial bottles of this remedy free of charge. 1

The Coffee House Experiment in Boston.

The coffee house experiment in Boston is only sixteen months old, but has reached $1,000 profit a month. The capital was furnished by benevolent men, who looked for no pecuniary return. The Casino coffee house was opened in February, 1892, and occupied the whole of a building. Fine glass windows, hard-wood finish, decorated walls and tasteful furnishings served to remove any impression of cheap charity. There were two entrances, one for women opening directly into drawing rooms, and the other for men to a "coffee bar," where coffee, cocoa, etc., sandwiches and simple refreshments were sold, and in the rear were billiard and pool tables, with chairs for persons watching the games. Cigars were sold at the coffee counter, and smoking was allowed. Overhead was a reading room and an apartment fitted up with tables for games. The idea was to provide all the social attractions of the saloons, with the exception of intoxicating drinks. A new coffee house was soon projected, the Allumra, which is even more attractive in its decorations and furnishings than the Casino, and equally successful.

The Ohioans are very much pleased with the attention their campaign is receiving outside the State, and regard it as a confirmation of their claim to be all that amounts to anything in the nation. It is very natural for them to be of this way of thinking, but if they would look around them, they would see that there is no other gubernatorial campaign in the neighborhood to dilute the attention. They might appreciate the fact also that Hostly's nomination by the Democrats is quite a political curiosity, and his method of talking to them a still greater one. It would be wise for the people of Ohio to take some precautions of this nature, so as to let themselves down easy, otherwise a terrible smash awaits them when they come down to the level of people in general, as they must some day.

Hay Fever.

I have been afflicted for twenty years during the months of August and September, with Hay Fever, and have tried various remedies without relief. I was induced to try Ely's Cream Balm; have used it with favorable results, and can confidently recommend it to all similarly afflicted. HOMER W. TOWNSEND, (ex-mayor) Elizabeth, N. J.

I have been a Hay Fever sufferer for three years; have often heard Ely's Cream Balm spoken of in the highest terms; did not take much stock in it because of the many quack medicines. A friend persuaded me to try the balm, and I did so with wonderful success. This recommendation you can use for the benefit of Hay Fever sufferers. E. S. GARY, Syracuse, N. Y. Price 50 cents. 1410cd&w2w

MAGGIE MITCHELL tells a story of something stranger than a faith cure. "I was afflicted with partial paralysis of the left limb, and almost lost the use of it. I was billed to open in a large city, and I was still on crutches. Every means that medical skill could suggest, including electricity, was brought to bear in my case, but I was benefitted little. The night arrived, the house was crowded, the galleries were noisy, and I was at a side wing on crutches. When the time for my entrance arrived as I fancied, with a supreme effort I threw on my arms, and went on with my part as naturally as ever. From that day to this I have never had a recurrence of the trouble."

The man who built a fire under his back to smoke the rats out has an imitator by the name of Brackett at Boston, who sprinkled his carpets liberally with naphtha to rid them of moths. Then he lighted the gas and had an explosion violent enough to burn off his hair and beard, smash the furniture and fire the house.

New Life

is given by using BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. In the Winter it strengthens and warms the system; in the Spring it enriches the blood and conquers disease; in the Summer it gives tone to the nerves and digestive organs; in the Fall it enables the system to stand the shock of sudden changes.

In no way can disease be so surely prevented as by keeping the system in perfect condition. Brown's IRON BITTERS ensures perfect health through the changing seasons, it disarms the danger from impure water and miasmatic air, and it prevents Consumption, Kidney and Liver Disease, &c.

H. S. Berlin, Esq., of the well-known firm of H. S. Berlin & Co., Attorneys, Le Droit Building, Washington, D. C., writes, Dec. 5th, 1881:

Gentlemen: I take pleasure in stating that I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for malaria and nervous troubles, caused by overwork, with excellent results.

Beware of imitations. Ask for BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and insist on having it. Don't be imposed on with something recommended as "just as good." The genuine is made only by the Brown Chemical Co. Baltimore, Md.
